Full job description

Are you a talented journalist who thrives in a busy environment, breaking news, driving deep engagement and setting the agenda on digital and social media platforms?

We are seeking an ambitious and skilled journalist to join our fast-paced digital newsroom and help us build our growing audience and subscriber base.

The successful applicant will be an energetic and creative multi-platform storyteller with proven skills in writing, research and analysis, a strong work ethic and a curiosity about people and their stories. An ability to understand and present data is highly desirable.

While the Northern Daily Leader has a long and proud history in newspapers, we know our future is delivering high quality, valuable journalism to our large and growing digital audience when, where and how it wants it.

Our newsroom is committed to that task and we are looking for someone equally committed to keeping our audience informed, entertained and connected.

The successful applicant will:

- provide examples of excellence in writing balanced, accurate reports to a high standard of spelling, grammar and style;
