Full job description

TAMWORTH

If you love making an impact in people's lives daily and are looking for a secure, well-established business with an excellent culture, look no further! I am looking for 2 Case Managers to join this team due to expansion!

About the Company

My Client has been operating for over 30 years in the New England & North West Communities offering employment support services, social enterprises, training programs, disability employment services, labour-hire and more.

They have great tenure in their team and ensure that people are supported with ongoing training and development opportunities.

Due to some new projects they have secured, they are now looking to add to the team in Tamworth.

About the Role

As Case Managers, you are ultimately responsible for ensuring that your participants are actively on the pathway to gaining ongoing and sustainable employment.

Many of your participants will have significant barriers hindering them from the workforce and you will work intensively with them to address these barriers, through interventions, referrals and training, resulting in employment.

Key Responsibilities

- Assess participants skillset
- Create goals using SMART goals
- Referring participants to skills training and employment preparation activities.
- Referrals to any specialist medical services
- Assist with job applications and interview preparation

- Accurate and timely data entry

Skills required

- Energetic and engaging personality, able to build rapport quickly
- Ability to be empathetic
- Calm under pressure
- Proven ability to achieve financial targets and KPIs
- Excellent written and verbal skills
- Great attention to detail and followup
- Can work to strict deadlines

Benefits for you

- Monthly RDOs!
- Holidays like Easter and Christmas off
- Salary sacrifice options
- Excellent salary package
- Great culture and long tenure in team
- Ongoing training and progression opportunities
