Our Client:

Established in 2009, our client has grown from a small family-owned business, to over 6 stores nation wide and are a name mentioned with fondness in the modern Australian household.

Offering stylish, affordable, and unique pieces of furniture to suit homes of all shapes and sizes, our client is passionate about providing family-friendly pieces that their customers can display in their home with pride.

The Role:

Our client is looking for someone with strong sales skills and an understanding of how to support their clientele through a purchase as soon as they step onto the shop floor.

You are required to have great communication skills as this role is based upon your ability to communicate effectively and clearly with customers.

Confidence to handle a busy store is also a must! Weekends are our clients busiest time, and being able to work fast while under pressure is a valuable skill that will support you through the day!

A great work ethic and maturity are also essential. Our clients love their team and cannot wait to expand with someone that is like minded, not afraid of teamwork, and who is willing to help out when needed!
